3.1 ADIAFRICA are delivering the Expo which includes the venue, allocated and assigned exhibition spaces, advertising for the event and facilitation of the event, each day. The Organiser is not responsible for any other service. The event facilities are managed by the owners of the physical space and as such, all responsibility for the physical location is not the responsibility of the Organiser.

3.2 Each potential exhibitor will need to be assessed by the Organiser on a case-by-case basis.

3.3 The Organiser has the complete discretion whether to accept a potential exhibitor.

3.4 The Exhibitor must provide the Organiser with timely, accurate and reliable contact information including but not limited to designated venue contact persons, contact number and/or email addresses.

3.5 All the Exhibitor's resources and any activity they undertake must occur within the boundaries of their assigned exhibition spaces.

3.6 Exhibitors must not approach people in the audience or in the crowd outside of the assigned exhibition space. This will only occur through the approved concierge staff.

3.7 At all times, all Exhibitors and their staff must carry their security and registration documents.

3.8 The Organiser reserves the right to alter the positioning and allocations of any Exhibitor space.

3.9 The Organiser does not warrant that the event hosted by the Organiser is appropriate for the Exhibitor. It is the Exhibitor's responsibility to determine if the event is suitable for its intended purpose.

3.10 The Organiser reserves the right to take photos and/or video images during the event and use these images without the expressed permission in any way as part of its advertising, promotion, social media or in any publication.

3.11 If you do not wish your image to be used, you must notify the Organiser prior to the event in writing.

3.12 It is a condition that all registered and attending service providers be listed by name and with logo prior to the event by sending the registration form to ADIafrica secretariat or by registering via ADIafrica website.

3.13 Exhibitors are required to leave their site, rubbish free and in the same state as they were provided prior to set up. Exhibitors are solely responsible for any damage to their site and space including financial responsibility for any repairs or replacements that may need to occur.

3.14 All advertising and content submitted to the Organiser produced for each event will be subject to approval by the Organiser prior to publication.

3.15 The event set up (Bump In) and dismantling (Bump Out) will be planned and the Exhibitors will be provided with the scheduled time prior to the event. No set up or dismantling of exhibition space is to occur after 09.00am on the first day of the event or before 11:30am on the third day.

3.16 During Bump In and Bump Out times, all Exhibitors and their staff must wear high visual vests.

3.17 All Exhibitors must be at their exhibit for the days of the event.

3.18 If you need to leave your exhibition space unattended due to an emergency, you must inform event staff immediately.

3.19 The Exhibitors must not sell food or drink at the event.

3.20 The Exhibitor must exercise all due care, skill, and attention in relation to the Expo.

3.21 The Exhibitor must comply with all legal requirements as applies in relation to the Expo and to the hotel.

4 INSURANCES

All Exhibitors must have their own Public Liability Insurance which must be appropriate for the event and the Expo.

5 SAFETY AND SECURITY

5.1 Exhibitors are solely responsible for all safety, equipment, management and delivery of any service and all persons involved in their exhibition space. It will be the responsibility of all Exhibitors to ensure that all resources, banners and any other items brought to the Expo by them or people they engage are safe.

5.2 Exhibitors are solely responsible for ensuring their electronic devices and other devices are safe.

5.3 Exhibitors will be solely responsible for the behaviour of their staff and anyone that they invite to be a part of their exhibition space.

5.4 At all times, Exhibitor spaces must have the Exhibitor staff present to ensure that safety and security is maintained. The Organiser will have staff on the day if you need something brought to you, such as coffee.

5.5 At all times, all Exhibitors must follow any reasonable direction from the Organiser, staff members or exhibition site security during the event. Failure to follow reasonable requests and display of any behaviour that is deemed by the Organiser staff to be inappropriate, breaching community standards or criminal in nature may result in referral to the exhibition site security and police.

5.6 The exhibition site and the Organiser will provide security staff on the day of the exhibition.

5.7 Exhibitor staff must complete any safety tasks, training or introduction topics as required by the venue.

6 CANCELLATIONS, REFUNDS AND UNFORESEEN EVENTS

6.1 If the Organiser cancels the event, the Organiser will provide a full refund to Exhibitors.

6.2 If COVID 19 restrictions are enacted by the Government or other unforeseen events occur, and the event must be postponed, a second date will be provided, and the event will go ahead at that time.

6.3 If Exhibitor does not want to participate in the postponed event, then the Exhibitor gets a 50% refund or credit from invoices already paid towards the Organiser's event.

6.4 If payment is not received within a week of registering as an exhibitor, the Organiser reserves the right to reallocate that space to another Exhibitor.

6.5 All Exhibitors and Sponsors are confirmed when full payment is received.

6.6 Our venues have limited spaces and the event might sell out. Full refunds will be given in case no space is available anymore.

6.7 Notwithstanding clause 6.6, if an Exhibitor cannot attend the event, then there will be no refund unless written notice is provided to ADIAFRICA at least 90 days prior to the event. If an Exhibitor cancels their booking in writing at least 90 days prior to the event and it is approved by ADIAFRICA, a 30% administrative fee will be retained

6.8 If an Exhibitor cannot attend the event and provides written notice to ADIAFRICA within 90 days prior to the event, it must outline the reasons for the cancellation.

6.9 ADIAFRICA has the absolute discretion to provide Exhibitors with a partial refund only in extenuating circumstances.

6.10 If a Sponsor wishes to withdraw the sponsorship, it will not be entitled to any refund because ADIAFRICA would have already incurred fees and expenses in relation to the Sponsor.

6.11 In the event of a dispute or issue raised there will be a cap on liability equal to or up to the amount paid by the exhibiting service provider already paid.
